PROEM

Dear Sir:

The collection of Coins which opens our Fall Season is not the result of a passing whim or fancy, but rather the accumulation of a life-time of continuous efforts. The gentleman in question is one of America's foremost collectors who is relinquishing the delightful pursuit, and by reading carefully the pages of this Catalogue the diversity and wide range of collecting will be at once apparent. Space forbids our dwelling on any particular coin or series of coins, except that special mention may be made of the Oriental Collection of Mr. H. P. Macoy which occupies the later part of the Catalogue. Mr. Macoy was a resident of Hong Kong for nearly seventeen years, and thereby was enabled to secure specimens that were out of the reach of the ordinary collector. The Wun Hi Gin collection which we sold in July woke up the Collectors of this Country to the Numismatic interest possessed by the Coins of China and we feel sure that a greater interest will be stirred up by the superb coins in this consignment. We have added duplicates of the July Sale and the whole has had the careful supervision of Mr. Frank C. Higgins, F.R.N.S., who has elaborated the envelopes wherein they are placed with a careful and minute description of them. We wish to call particular attention to the fact that the coins in this collection are to be sold in the evening instead of the afternoon as usual. We have made the change for the convenience of the gentlemen who are unable to attend auctions held in the daytime, thereby giving all an opportunity of purchasing and also seeing what they buy. The Coins will be on exhibition through the afternoon and till 7:30 in evening. Sale will commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

Very Truly Yours,

GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS.

Note: This remarkable piece was the first coin that was accepted by His Majesty Edward VII, in his official capacity as a numismatist. His first connection with numismatics commenced with his assumption of the patronage of the Royal Numismatic Society. This coin had been designed and executed by the celebrated engraver Frank Bowcher at the time of the Coronation, but owing to his Majesty's illness, it was one of the thousand things overlooked. ONLY 26 WERE STRUCK. Mr. Frank C. Higgins' F. R. N. S. secured four, one of which he had he had suitably cased and offered to his Majesty who accepted it in a gracious letter of thanks, which together with one of the duplicates Mr. Higgins presented to the New York Numismatic and Archeological Society Society. Mr. Higgins retains one piece as a souvenir and this the remaining one is the only one not in private hands. It is believed that this Crown is destined to rank in years to come with the Petition Crown of Charles II.
